

VII South-South Institute
“Inequality, Democracy and Development under Neoliberalism and Beyond”
Bangkok, 3-8 November 2014

Programme Schedule

Monday 3 November 2014
9.00-9.30	Welcome and Introduction to the Institute
9.30-11.00	Prabhat Patnaik	Capitalism and Global Poverty
11.00-11.30	Coffee/Tea break
11.30-1.00	Hendri Saparini	Indonesian Political Economy: Will neoliberalism persist or come to an end?
1.00-2.00	Lunch break
Group 1 – moderated by C. P. Chandrasekhar
2.00-3.30	Chilenye Nwapi	Neoliberal Extractive Resource Governance Frameworks and Interregional Economic Inequality in the Global South: Strengthening regional competitiveness through local content policies and extractive transparency laws
	Lorena de la Puente Burlando	Extractive Industries in the South and Their Effect on State Capacity under Neoliberalism: When economic development is based on social and environmental impacts
Group 2 – moderated by Laura Tavares
2.00-3.30	Nicholas Kilimani	Inequality and Democracy in a Developing Economy
	Assem Abouhatab	The Role of Food Price Volatility in the Emergence of Socio-Political Unrest: A case study of the “Arab Spring” in Egypt
Group 3 – moderated by Prabhat Patnaik
2.00-3.30	Ilich Leon Gustavo Ortiz Wilches	Financialisation and Structural Change in Latin America: Regulation of finance as a condition for productive development
	Youjia Shen	Neo-classical Talk on Reform of SOEs (State Owned Enterprises) in China
3.30-4.00	Tea break
Group 1 – moderated by Prabhat Patnaik
4.00-5.30	Zhun Xu	Food Security in China
	Wei Zhang	Chinese Peasants on a Diet?: Explaining declining nutrition intake in contemporary rural China
Group 2 – moderated by Laura Tavares
4.00-5.30	Mohammad Reza Pazouki	Analyzing the Effects of Globalization and Neoliberalism on Earning Inequality in a Developing Country: Evidence from Iran
	Sharmistha Sinha	Gender Based Inequities in the World of Work: Insights from Latin America, Sub-Saharan Africa and Asia
Group 3 – moderated by Ebrima Sall
4.00-5.30	Abdelali Bensaghir	Commerce Mondial et Développement Economique des pays du sud dans une ère neoliberal
	Reinaldo da Costa	Brazilian Public Policy on Internationalization of Higher Education

	Júnior	Against Neoliberalism: Popular campuses of Latin-American and Lusophone-Afrobrazilian integration
7.00-9.00	Welcome Reception
Tuesday 4 November 2014
9.00-10.30	Jayati Ghosh	Inequality in the Age of Neoliberalism
10.30-11.00	Coffee/Tea break
11.00-12.30	Ebrima Sall
12.30-1.30	Lunch break
1.30-3.00	John Crowley	Is Development a Good Thing?
3.00-3.30	Coffee/tea break
Group 1 - moderated by Laura Tavares
3.30-5.00	Poorna Balaji	Political Ecology of Forest Diversion: Socio-environmental transformations due to mining and conservation measures in Southern Odisha, India
	Emmanuel Vanger	Political Ecology of Herders' Insurgency of Tiv farmers in Benue State: Nigeria under neoliberalism
Group 2 - moderated by Gioconda Herrera
3.30-5.00	Marilyn Ossome	Democracy's Subjections: Readings of feminist postcolonial desires for emancipation
	Mitsuko Tanaka	The Construction of the Neo-liberal Self: What do singlehood, migration and labour mean in the lives of Latin American temporary workers in Japan?
Group 3 - moderated by Prabhat Patnaik
3.30-5.30	Andrés Felipe Mora Cortés	25 years of Fiscal Crisis in Colombia, 1990-2014: Accumulation, confidence and legitimation in the neoliberal order
	Bonn Juego	The Political Economy of Development in Southeast Asia
	Melissa Salgado Rodríguez	Historical Trajectory of Social Inequality in El Salvador: From industrialization to neoliberalism
Wednesday 5 November
9.00-10.30	C. P. Chandrasekhar	Neoliberalism and the Developmental State in Asia
10.30-11.00	Coffee/Tea break
11.00-12.30	Patrick Bond	Neoliberalism and Social Policy
12.30-1.30	Lunch break
1.30-3.00	Gioconda Herrera	Intersectionality and Migrations: Rethinking globalization and social inequalities in Latin America
3.00-3.30	Coffee/tea break
Group 1 - moderated by Patrick Bond
3.30-5.00	María Noel Dussort	Brazil, India and China's Energy Policy towards West Africa: Linkage models for development?
	Ajmal Khan	Changing Nature and Character of the Indian State in the Post Liberalization Era: A study of the state's responses to people's movements in Koodan Kulam and Jaitapur
Group 2 - moderated by Carlos Cardoso
	Meysis González	Vulnerability and Social Production of Meaning: An analysis of the

3.30-5.00		social representations of historically excluded groups and the impact of inclusion policies of the National Plan for Good Living in Ecuador
	Geydis Elena Fundora Nevot	The Recent Cuban Social and Economic Model: In dialogue with new and old paradigms on development
3.30-5.00	Group 3 – moderated by C. P. Chandrasekhar
	Kutlu Dane	Financing Development through Islamic Funds: Evaluation of the Sovereign Sukuk practice of Turkey
	Claudio Daniel Coloma Rojas	Neoliberalism as Ideology of Modernization in the Global South: A dialogue between China and Chile
Thursday 6 November
9.00-10.30	Laura Tavares	Panorama of the Social Situation in Latin America under Neoliberalism
10.30-11.00	Coffee/Tea break
11.00-12.30	Pasuk Phongpaichit	Thailand I: Inequalities of income and wealth
12.30-1.30	Lunch break
1.30-3.00	Chris Baker	Thailand II: The politics of inequality
3.00-3.30	Coffee/tea break
3.30-5.30	Group 1 – moderated by Pasuk Phongpaichit
	Roshan Kishore	Situating India's Food Security Challenges in a Political Economy Framework
	Mauricio Nucamendi	The Participation of Indigenous and Rural Women in Decisions about Ownership, Use and Usufruct Land in the Communities of Chiapas, Mexico
	Claudia Gastrow	Architectures of Autochthony: The materiality of belonging in Luanda, Angola
3.30-5.30	Group 2 – moderated by Chris Baker
	Ufiem Maurice Ogbonaya	Political Exclusion, Violent Conflicts and Development in Africa: A cross country analysis
	Emilianus Yacob Sese Tolo	Political Economy of Land Ownership and Development in Indonesia: A case study of three provinces in Eastern Indonesia
	Sofiane Bouhdiba	Inequality and Democracy in the Case of Post-revolution Tunisia
3.30-5.30	Group 3 – moderated by Andong Zhu
	Bryan Joseph Ortiz	The Promise of Prosperity through Urban Revitalization in the Philippines, Colombia, Indonesia, and Mexico under a Devolved and Neo-liberal Regime
	Sarah Helen Chiumbu	Rethinking Media and Democracy in the Global South: Perspectives from Southern Africa
	Liu Zhen
Friday 7 November
9.00-10.30	Andong Zhu	Recent Development of World Capitalism and its Crisis
10.30-11.00	Coffee/Tea break
11.00-12.00	Karina Bidaseca	Open Access Publishing
12.00-1.30	Lunch break
1.30-4.30	Panel and open discussion – Moderators and participants
Saturday 8 November
Free day for sightseeing etc		