

KOSHUN'S COG

nuclear turd world imperial jock-socked at core in) devil law a capital whore this) global war terrors millions lucifer minions sulphur uterine cooked spawn death born heart fuck come together struck apart black lightning strike torn culture globalisation? fusion bomb darkest fear holds the universe's stomach rattle lead fangs the battle-head bangs a cackle where the red-line rang the lyrical dead sang veteran aspirant toxin respirant the race-issue resident between cell-coil & tissue measurement gene-pool's sacrament to the holy-tick con-text politic defined holistic miscegenate to generate a mental-to-rectal hate mix gore-splash war-game animate human platform animal station slo-mo blood drops gene rotten flow death-flood crops war plane on peace mission tale spin into fiction consumer-nation expansion script flipped back twisted prostrate corporate degenerate come coprophile-liberate psyched animal on acid dreams drugged so lugged doped rhythmstreams drunken piles the mind races insane human overdraft-life drawn mindlocks and headpads they milk veins load shells in skulls slaves in mental hulls bush rage predatorial forage big brotherhood beamed dreams drained thought telecast vision colonial heartbleed hypocrisy prophecy gone bust on screen reel-to soused reel schizophrenic fang-to-neck kiss the human is blood-bucket to the market driven existence is spectacle life's synthetics (little koshun lost in jungle sonics) illusion human relations & madness makes sense the social miracle the beast embraces global design on the era's definition marine on christian mission colonial) whitewash and spread the absolution talk people not capital when life is financial concern?

whirl the wind to whip the world into consent the bow-to-rule concept weakheart and softspine aligned in concert snivel tongue is a graveyard shovel stick it in up the earth-bowel beg feed from deathbowl mortal state the goal

CHORUS:

dead intellects debate throw up a dread mandate conscience sinks in deep HATE what history will pre-date blood evaporate colonial mentalities recycled from bloodlined fraternities to sisters of supreme mercies howls on aryan mountain peaks from caucasus to negrotto death-graphs and mentality shrieks supremacy diseased squad sick dog-head at the drool pool the skin is stained tainted 'cos melanin painted watch the race explode the pieces fall in the class terrain cruel connect electric in second coming time shame on the brave drop shit thru the hole in the soul centre captive spirit slave god is green walking down red roads (who will carry these dead loads) aggresses these cretins he addresses the masses live between mountain buttocks (detox from where evil talks) the dread-predator stalks klux in the foul power run from eggs to explosives klan destiny written in the stars and stripes frozen chicken fodder of david tech-excess waste toxic garbage in soft-poison talk and the lead walk on the trade-route paid in jackboot-loot betrayed in bullet friendly embrace raid & pillage the race black rain caught in the net-web crab-wet & wack tack on the neck shackled at the free market we'd swing in the tree but it's become paper so crawl bloated belly broken bottle cut & bawl across the carpet wall to skin-wall flesh is the parapet (rats to paper) human veins hold up the skyscraper state power locked high up in the hate tower got nature in chains (colour us faeces coloured the thesis) temper the skull-plate & brains vibrate same species bought & sold (the ultimate) hold white venerate caught in shame-prison

('koshun the alienated adventurer' in frau berkes terms rumpelstiltskin evolution is a blood to bone to shit to brain period) slip a disc sulphuric snake it in the groove get minds on the skid serpentine move life is fluid until dammed birth does that...pain will sustain THE DREAM solace in plastic world raceless and then the flames (class) prattle faster pedal back to black shore up struggle racketeers (future sound is sure ground) synthetics live inside concept come off the rant and rail tracks the thrill in the drill first the grey-zone stint as 'drag-machine on parade'

'the colour is one?' next bray for a 'return' or 'forward' hit 'rewind' or what button 'eject' then will the tint fade to code beyond the commodity outside the strut and wriggle butt-lick for the jiggle sound stretched to infinities DUB-tone silence's distances violence where the music breaks the piece of mind it takes skulls broken to micro-chips magic-dancer slips on spilt cerebellum (sick tales on psychic lips) it leaves a psyche-stain derail the thought-train tonight we 'GET OFF' value belief if system tradition is prison oppresses sense-virus injected brilliance infected radiation burn dips in skin melts bone blow-torches essences peels off pretences liberated leave in self destruction's genesis test-tube situate experiment sensibilities desolate mad merriment they rodent tunnel blood down the funnel intellect sucked into a tv channel selection 'poop in the loop' dreams on mountains-tops creation mission flops gene rotten... needle/stylus in wax-spin situation birth to death time-travel on a cross-fader gone off the mental-radar graf-warrior on a flesh-wall bomb the skin for the heart deface to bring out beauty art pump the bass and watch babylon fall hawk in flight reach height between kingdom and ruin stock market crash rabies and the lash poetry the ostrich-eyelash dirty putridity is cash in a human bagabone a bone for the obscene rich barbarian on the charge cannon and the venereal discharge the poem survive the depth charge.

trooper nova eruption
